Become a CAS Student Central Ambassador

The Casualty Actuarial Society (CAS) is seeking a motivated and passionate student who is pursuing a career in actuarial science to become an ambassador for the CAS Student Central membership program. As a CAS Student Central Ambassador, you will act as a champion for the CAS and property and casualty actuarial profession on your university’s campus.

As an ambassador, you will hold your position for a duration of four semesters and dedicate approximately 12 hours per semester to position responsibilities. You will serve as the incoming ambassador during the 2019 – 2020 school year and the lead ambassador during the 2020 – 2021 school year.

Benefits

- Jumpstart your career through the opportunity to network and work closely with a CAS member, your CAS University Liaison.
- Build your resume through active involvement in a student leadership position with the CAS.
- Receive recognition from the CAS in online and printed publications.
- Contribute to the improvement of resources that will help advance your future career, and the future careers of your classmates.

Responsibilities

Help to facilitate CAS University Liaison campus visits and presentations each semester by:

- Coordinating logistical details with professors and the CAS University Liaison, as well as assisting with presentations on-site.
- Promoting upcoming presentations by the CAS University Liaison through email, social media, and in-person announcements.
- Submitting photos, student quotes, and attendance sheets to CAS University Liaison and CAS University Engagement Manager, following each visit and presentation.

Increase student awareness of the resources and opportunities available through CAS Student Central on campus by:

- Sharing information about CAS Student Central initiatives and resources via email, in-person announcements, and social media.
- Promoting upcoming events and webinars and encouraging student attendance.

Assist with the development of CAS Student Central by:

- Providing the CAS with feedback through surveys and focus groups.
- Participating in discussions in the CAS Student Central online community.

Criteria for Student Ambassadors

- You should be a rising sophomore, junior, or graduate student, and planning to continue as a student at your university for the 2019 – 2020 and 2020 – 2021 school years.
- You must be willing to hold the position of CAS Student Central Ambassador for 4 semesters and dedicate approximately 12 hours each semester to position responsibilities.
- You must have sat for at least one actuarial exam by 2019.
- Actuarial internship experience is a bonus but not a requirement.
