Course Description

The objectives of this course are to provide you with a firm understanding of marketing strategy and the techniques used for marketing in a globalized context. Over the past decade, marketing has embraced a broad set of online tools that have revolutionized and revitalized an approach to the marketplace, including blogs, online news releases, social media, streaming video, and viral marketing strategies, among others. This course aims to instruct you in two primary, fundamental areas of marketing:

1. Basic principles of marketing, which includes market segmentation strategies, the use of marketing channels, how to develop promotion and pricing strategies, and how to develop competitive advantage.
2. How to leverage technology-driven, digital media for achieving marketing goals. You will learn through various examples of marketing problems, and you will learn to apply these principles within the context of a problem-oriented approach.

A secondary but also important set of learning outcomes of the course is an understanding of the rewards of global marketing, social responsibility, and the benefits of a global vision in setting business goals.

Assignments & Deliverables

A total of four assignments will be presented (online via UW-LEARN) throughout the course, each of which should be submitted online (before class begins) on the date of the class session for which the assignment is listed under the “Assignments & Deliverables” column of the Course Schedule. For example, the first assignment should be submitted online via UW-LEARN before the beginning of class on Monday, October 3, 2016. Assignment particulars and requirements will be presented to students online via UW-LEARN at least one session prior to when each assignment is due. Assignments are to be completed on an individual basis.

Throughout the course, students will have many opportunities to work in groups. In addition to in-class group exercises and discussions, student groups will undertake a single group project throughout the life of the course. Groups will be formed during the first class session. There will be 4-6 groups in total, each group comprised of between 2-3 individuals, depending on class size. Students will be allowed to partner with group members of their own choosing.

As groups, students will be responsible for the following, as per the bolded Deliverables listed under the Course Schedule:

Group Project: Throughout the life of the course, each group will be working on a project whose parameters are as follows: Develop a marketing strategy, plan and conceptual prototype of a new (or improvement upon an existing) product or service with a particular focus on user experience. The context of the user experience can – for example – take the form of a web site, an online video, an interactive advertising campaign, social media campaign, combination of the aforementioned or something altogether different. The project can be as focused or as big picture as groups are able to successfully communicate and prototype. A conceptual prototype means that groups will present their idea as close to the final desired outcome as possible without it having to function technically. The project has two key components:

1. Marketing Strategy and Plan. A ten-page, double-spaced document in 12-point type that spells out the details of the product or service and user experience (approximately 8 pages of text and 2 pages of illustrations/diagrams/charts). The document will essentially be a marketing plan specifically designed to address the unique challenges brought about due to advances in technology, the internet and new media marketing. The document will be collected on the final class session – one copy from each group containing the names of all members.

2. Conceptual Prototype. The Marketing Strategy and Plan brought to life through an in-class presentation no shorter than 7 minutes and no longer than 10 minutes. Students may combine verbal storytelling with PowerPoint slides, videos and/or any other audio/visual aid that assists in communicating the core ideas presented within the Marketing Strategy and Plan.

The Group Project will be delivered in three stages:

1. Group Project Topics (Session 2): Each group speaks for a few minutes on their chosen topic (new [or improvement upon an existing] product or service and associated user experience). Constructive criticism and feedback is provided.
2. Group Project Midterm (Session 8): Each group provides an oral progress report and hands in a rough outline of their final 10-page Marketing Strategy & Plan. Constructive criticism and feedback is provided.
3. Group Project Final (Session 12): Final 7-10 minute oral presentation (accompanied by audio/visual aids) and a 10-page Marketing Strategy & Plan (including results from any relevant market research, associated imagery/figures).
