Purpose
Use this form if your 2017-18 OSAP Application for Full-Time Students was denied funding because of a failed credit check and you wish to have this decision reviewed.

You can apply for an OSAP credit check review if you can demonstrate all of the following:

• your financial difficulties were due to circumstances beyond your control;
• you are now financially stable; and
• you will be able to repay any further student loans that may be issued to you.

By submitting this form, the ministry will request a copy of your credit report from Equifax. The information in the report, along with the documentation you must provide with this form, will be used to determine if you are eligible for funding consideration for your 2017-18 study period.

Note:
Before you complete this form, you must have already submitted a 2017-18 OSAP Application for Full-Time Students.

Required Documents
You must provide a timeline on the circumstances that led to your credit issues along with a budget that clearly outlines how you would be able to repay any further loans that may be issued to you. You must also provide documentation to support the information in your timeline and your budget. See Section C - Required Documentation for further details.

How to Submit this Form
You can upload your completed form online. Log into the OSAP web site and go to your application to use the “Print/Upload” feature. Or, you can submit a paper copy as follows:

Section C: Required Documentation
You must provide the following documentation to support your credit check review. You must also:

• sign and date any letters you write to support your review request; and
• include your name and student number on all documentation provided.

1. A letter outlining the timeline of events that resulted in your financial difficulties. You must explain how the circumstances that led to your financial difficulties were beyond your control. You must also provide documentation to support the events outlined in your timeline. Examples of possible documentation include:
   • proof of layoff or job dismissal (e.g., Record of Employment, letter from employer);
   • proof of marital breakdown (e.g., separation agreement, divorce judgement, court order);
   • documentation from a professional third party who was directly involved in the event(s) outlined (e.g. family physician, police officer, social worker);

   Note: If you indicated “yes” to the question “Have you ever filed for bankruptcy or initiated a related event?” in Section B, you must also include the Liability Page of your bankruptcy document.

2. A budget that clearly outlines how you are addressing your current debts and living expenses. You must provide documentation to support the information in your budget. Examples of possible documentation include:
   • proof that you’ve participated in credit counselling and/or other efforts you’ve made to improve your credit rating;
   • proof that you have paid your recent bills on time (e.g., rent/mortgage payments, utilities, credit card payments);
   • proof that you have a stable income source that allows you to meet your current living costs and pay down your outstanding debts (if applicable).

3. A letter explaining how you plan to repay any OSAP loans issued to you. You must provide details to support your repayment plans. This includes:
   • the field of employment/type of job you plan to pursue after you complete your program of study;
   • any career counselling you’ve participated in that supports the suitability of your program of study to your career choice;
   • the annual income you expect to earn;
   • the job opportunities that exist in your planned field of employment; and
   • how your program of study supports your employment plans.

You may be asked to provide additional documentation based on the information you provide with this request.

Section D: Student Declaration and Signature
I understand that if my review request is accepted, my OSAP application will be re-assessed based on the information I have provided for this review. I will be bound by the Declarations I signed on my 2017-18 OSAP Application for Full-Time Students.
