

Conversation Amongst Anabaptist-Mennonite Practical Theologians

Monday April 25, from 1:00-2:30 pm ET

Calling all Anabaptist-Mennonite practical theologians!

Do you teach practical theology at an Anabaptist Mennonite institution? Are you an Anabaptist Mennonite professor of practical theology or independent scholar in the field? You are invited to meet colleagues doing similar work through a Zoom call Monday April 25, from 1:00-2:30 pm ET. We will get to know each other, gauge interest in a semi-annual conversation, and identify topics we might like to address such as supervised ministry, courses, student engagement and demographics, degree programs, ministerial formation and ethics.

RSVP to Carol Penner (c2penner@uwaterloo.ca) or Sarah Bixler (sarah.bixler@emu.edu) and we will send out a Zoom invite the week before the meeting. We hope to see you on the screen!
