

THE WATER INSTITUTE

How to get the most out of your membership

Help us to  PROMOTE YOUR WORK

- > Let us know about aspects of your research that may be news-worthy (new publications, findings, etc.)
- > Let us know about your recent publications, op-eds, and stories in which the media has quoted you
- > Let us know when your research has been published

STAY UPDATED

on water research news

- > Join our mailing list uwaterloo.ca/water-institute
- > Follow us on Twitter @water_institute
- > Subscribe to our YouTube channel

uwaterloo.ca/water-institute

PARTNER

with us

- > Use the Water Institute logo on your website(s) and presentations
- > Affiliate with the Water Institute — in addition to departments — on publications
- > Let us know when you or your students will be speaking at conferences
- > Use our Water Institute swag
- > Identify potential WaterTalk speakers
- > Work with us on your funding applications
- > Apply to our seed grants program
- > Share information with your students about the Collaborative Water Program
- > Encourage your graduate students to join SWIGS — Students of the Water Institute, Graduate Section

Expand your

KNOWLEDGE NETWORK

- > Schedule meetings with our RBC Visiting Fellows
- > Attend a WaterTalk
- > Schedule meetings with our WaterTalk speakers