REDUCING CARBON EMISSIONS THROUGH ENERGY EFFICIENCY: A CANADIAN PERSPECTIVE

Chandra Ramadurai, CEO, Efficiency Capital

Retrofitting a building to reduce carbon emissions in the current Canadian market can offer returns of up to 15-20%. So why has the response been so seemingly low? Chandra Ramadurai, CEO of Efficiency Capital explores the rapidly evolving energy efficiency landscape with an overview of current and historical market value, and his professional insight into the future of performance based investment structures in this WISE Public Lecture. All are welcome at this free event and questions from the audience are encouraged.
