

Women in Engineering - Academic Career Development

Current trends in hiring expectations

- ❑ Teaching reference alongside research reference
- ❑ Statement of teaching philosophy
- ❑ Practical teaching experience and teaching evaluations
- ❑ Prepared teaching demonstrations

As a grad student, how can you grow your teaching portfolio?

- ❑ Use your TA experience wisely
- ❑ Collect documents related to your teaching
- ❑ Attend teaching development workshops or programs

Centre for Teaching Excellence - Teaching development opportunities

- ❑ Level 1: Fundamentals of University Teaching
- ❑ Level 2: Certificate of University Teaching

Resources:

Centre for Teaching Excellence website: <https://uwaterloo.ca/centre-for-teaching-excellence/>

Writing a Statement of Teaching Philosophy for the Academic Job Search: <http://cgi.stanford.edu/~dept-ctl/cgi-bin/tomprof/posting.php?ID=998>

How to prepare a teaching dossier: <http://www.universityaffairs.ca/how-to-prepare-a-teaching-dossier.aspx>

How to get the most out of your teaching experiences at Waterloo: <https://uwaterloo.ca/centre-for-teaching-excellence/teaching-resources/teaching-tips/professional-development/enhancing-your-teaching/how-get-most-teaching-experience-waterloo>

Questions asked by hiring committees: <https://uwaterloo.ca/centre-for-teaching-excellence/teaching-resources/teaching-tips/professional-development/career-strategies/questions-asked-hiring-committees>

Tools for reflecting on your teaching: <https://uwaterloo.ca/centre-for-teaching-excellence/teaching-resources/teaching-tips/professional-development/enhancing-your-teaching/tools-reflecting-teaching>

Improving your CV at Waterloo: <https://uwaterloo.ca/centre-for-teaching-excellence/teaching-resources/teaching-tips/professional-development/career-strategies/improving-your-curriculum-vitae>

Books for new faculty members: Davis, B.G. (1993). Tools for Teaching. (LB2331 .D37 2001) and McKeachie, W. J. (2002). Teaching Tips: Strategies, Research, and Theory for College and University Teachers. (LB1738 .M25 1994)